SENATE AND HOUSE

Former Will Tinker the Tariff—Later Will Do Nothing.

ANNOYING SUGAR SCHEDULE.

Minister De Lome and Secretary Sherman Hear From Spain, but They Will Not Talk—For Minister to Chili—William W. Canada Consul to Vera Cruz, Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—While the tariff will continue the general topic of discussion in the senate during the present week, there is no certainty as to what portion of it will receive special attention. This uncertainty is due largely to the difficulty of determining when the sugar schedule will be taken up. It is so generally understood that this schedule will consume considerable time that there is no effort to outline beyond it the course of proceeding. The wood schedule will afford a brief respite before reaching the sugar question, as that subject was left undisposed of when the senate adjourned on Saturday. Senator Allen probably will enter a motion to strike out the entire paragraph relating to sugar, and the motion may lead to other speeches than his own.

Whether the sugar schedule will be taken up in order is still undetermined. There are many differences of opinion on the subject, but the prevailing desire is to get the schedule out of the way as soon as possible.

There is no doubt in any event of a postponement until Senator Aldrich's return to the senate. He is still confined to his room, but is expected to be out early in the week. That the Hawaiian treaty will be protected by the finance committee is considered settled, but a caucus may be necessary to determine whether other changes should be made. Senator Pettigrew has decided definitely to offer his antitrust amendment in connection with this schedule. The tobacco schedule immediately follows the sugar schedule, but it may be necessary temporarily to pass it over, as the committee has promised the tobacco men a hearing. They will ask for $2 on wrapper and 35 cents on filler tobacco. There is also an inclination to return to the language of the Wilson law on this subject. This is understood to be the wish of both the importers and the tobacco growers. The house has no work before it this week.

DE LOME HEARS FROM HOME.

He Receives a Dispatch Announcing the Queen's Cabinet Decision.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Spanish Minister De Lome yesterday received a cablegram announcing the result of the queen's decision in the matter of the Spanish premier and cabinet ministers who recently tendered their resignations. The minister's dispatch says the queen had reached her decision after consulting with the former premier and the ministers. Included in the former were Senor Sagasta, the present leader of the Liberal party and Martinez Campos, the captain general of Cuba, who gave way to General Weyler.

Mr. De Lome declined to discuss the possibilities of the retention in office of the present ministry in relation to the policy to be pursued with regard to Cuban affairs and the incumbency of Captain General Weyler.

Secretary Sherman also received a long cable dispatch from United States Minister Taylor at Madrid. Presumably it is in connection with the happening of the day in that city but as it was in cipher the secretary was unable to disclose its contents.

Catholic Commencement Exercises.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The commencement exercises of the Catholic University began yesterday with solemn high mass sung by the Very Rev. Dr. P. J. Garrigan vice rector. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rev. William Fitzgerald of Lambertville, N. J. Taking his inspiration from the feast of the day, he spoke eloquently of the Holy Ghost as the teacher of all truth. He traced the origin of truth through the senses, reason and revelation, and urged the students to labor diligently to acquire all truth and take it as their motto.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: William W. Canada of Indiana to be consul at Vera Cruz, Mex. Postmaster—Oliver C. Gordon, Union City, Ind.; Ira Kidwell, Elwood, Ind.; Morris B. Pote, New Harmony, Ind.; John H. Daugherty, Franklin, Ind. The following fourth-class postmasters were appointed: Dubois, R. H. Allen; Granger, Frank Randolph; Mill Grove, W. T. Roswell.

For Minister to Chili.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The president has decided to appoint Harry Wilson minister to Chili. Mr. Wilson is a brother to Senator John M. Wilson of Washington. He was a delegate to the national convention in St. Louis. The appointment probably will go to the senate in a few days.

Commodore Nicholson's Wife Dead.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Mrs. H. M. Nicholson, wife of Commodore Nicholson, retired, died suddenly yesterday. She leaves a family of two daughters and five sons, one of the latter being in the army and another in the navy.

DIVINE HEALER SCHLATTER.

He is Found Dead in the Foot Hills of Sierra Madre.

EL PASO, Texas, June 7.—Francis Schlatter, who claimed to perform miraculous cures by divine power, was recently found dead in the foot hills of Sierra Madre, 35 miles southwest of Casa Grande, in the state of Chihuahua, Mex. He had been fasting and apparently starved to death. While in Denver from Aug. 22 to Nov. 13, 1895, about 200,000 people visited Schlatter to receive treatment.

SERVICE OF CONSULS

Interview With United States Consul General Morss.

ARDUOUS DUTIES PERFORMED.

Work Compares Favorably With That of Any Other Nation—Compliments Paid by Foreigners—Reforms Suggested in the Light of Experience—Diplomatic Service.

PARIS, June 7.—Consul General Morss who has just completed a 4-year's term of office has given to a correspondent his impressions of the consular service of the United States. It is in part as follows:

"It would be difficult to answer very satisfactorily your questions within the limits of an ordinary newspaper article. While I am free to confess that our consular service is not in all respects what it ought to be, and that there is great room for improvement in many ways, it is still my deliberate opinion that, measured by the results accomplished, it is at least the equal of that of any other consular service in the world.

"Important British journals have often compared the work of American and English consuls to the disadvantage of the latter. In a German official document sent me by Consul General DeKay of Berlin a high compliment is paid to our service. Similar testimony has been given in leading French organs and in discussions in the French parliament.

"A comparison of the consular regulations of France, Germany, Great Britain and the United States will show that the duties imposed upon American consuls are more arduous and more varied than those exacted of the consuls of other countries. For instance, the work connected with the certification of invoices is not imposed upon the consular officers of other countries. In the principal American consulates the clerical force is largely occupied with this work.

"The revenue from the fees for the certification of invoices and other official services, all of which is paid into the treasury of the United States, practically maintains our consular service. The consular service of other countries is not on the contrary, self supporting, but is maintained in whole or in large part at the charge of the taxpayers thereof.

Looking After Travelers.

"Aside from the invoice work American consuls are called upon to perform many duties and render many services to American citizens who are not expected from the consuls of other countries as a rule. This is true in Europe at least, and arises in part from the great volume of American travel in England and on the continent. For every Frenchman who travels in the United States there are, I suppose, at least one hundred Americans who travel in France. It is the duty of all consuls, and I believe it is the pleasure of most of them, to render every possible service to their traveling fellow-citizens. This involves heavy demands upon the time, and a considerable portion of the consular officers at such cities as London, Paris, Berlin and Rome.

"It is conceded by those best qualified to judge all over Europe that the commercial and other reports of American consuls compare very favorably, to say the least, with the reports made by the consuls of other countries. Any person who will examine the reports published by the bureau of statistics during a single year will be impressed by the great number and variety of subjects treated, the intelligence with which they are handled, and the value of information they contain.

"It is not my wish to exaggerate the merits or to gloss over the shortcomings of our consular service. I simply wanted to point out that the service, although very far from ideal, and susceptible of great improvement in many respects, is, everything considered, reasonably creditable and efficient.

Service Ought to Be Improved.

"But it can be, and ought to be, very greatly improved. The selection of consular officers should be made with a view to their traveling fellow-citizens. This involves heavy demands upon the time, and a considerable portion of the consular officers at such cities as London, Paris, Berlin and Rome.

view to the character and qualifications of the appointee, rather than on political grounds. There should be a greater permanence of tenure, and a system of promotion should be adopted. I would not be understood as admitting that because political considerations cut so large a figure at present, as they always have, in the selection of consular officers, character and competency are ignored. As a matter of fact, they are seldom disregarded. I make the broad assertion that the consuls of the United States in Europe, as a general rule, will compare favorably in point of character and capability with their colleagues of other nations.

"In my opinion, where practicable, the appointees to consular offices should be familiar with the language of the country to which they are accredited, and should have some knowledge of its manners and customs and especially of its business methods. Modest fees should be abolished and salaries correspondingly increased. The personnel of the leading offices should be materially augmented. A system of frequent and rigid inspections of consulates should be established to be conducted by consular generals. Our minor consular officials are miserably paid and their compensation should be materially increased. These reforms are all practical and, are necessary to secure the best results from our consular system.

"The United States should acquire suitable and permanent quarters for its embassies and legations in all the important capitals. The salaries of our diplomatic representatives should be increased to a respectable figure. The existing scale is miserably paltry. It compels the appointment of wealthy men as ambassadors and ministers, or places our diplomatic representatives at a hopeless disadvantage as compared with their colleagues of other nations."

PITTSBURG LETTER.

Some Observations Made by a Hoosier at the Baptist Anniversaries.

In days of old wise men came from the East, and there are many good people who believe that today wisdom's children find their home near the rising sun. There is a common notion, not only prevalent east of the Ohio river but frequently found in the west, that the culture and refinement of this nation is centered in and radiates from Boston and vicinity.

It is not the purpose here to contend with the forces concerned but to call attention to the fact that never before in the history of the world, has locality had as little to do with the possession of intelligence and never was it so impossible to bound culture and refinement by longitude and latitude as now.

An interesting illustration of this fact was afforded your correspondent here in Pittsburgh within the last week or two. It was the occasion of the gathering of the Baptist hosts from all over the land. They came from the north, east, south and west and sat down together in the auditorium of the Fourth Ave. Baptist church. No one could distinguish the men from the different sections of the country except when they spoke and betrayed the accent peculiar to the locality in which each lived.

The writer was taken for a New Yorker several times, when as a matter of fact he had never seen New York or sniffed the brine of the Atlantic. By the way Pittsburgh has been more than usually religious of late by reason of the many religious conventions meeting here, the largest of which was the Baptists. Some interesting things occurred in these meetings.

It was the annual meeting of the several societies of the denomination, such as the Home Mission, Foreign Mission, Woman's Society Historical and Publication societies. From one to two days were devoted to each of these societies. The first day was given to the Woman's meeting. Prominent among the workers of this society stands Miss Burdette, a sister to the noted humorist and lecturer, "Bob" Burdette. She is Cor. Sec'y. of the Woman's Home Mission Society and has her office in Chicago. She is a very bright woman and by her witty and interesting speeches added much to the charm of that meeting.

The Home Mission Society occupied a good deal of time but they had a long program and many things to do. Mr. Stephen Green, a layman, is the president of the society. During one of the sessions of this body Dr. J. D. Fulton, author of the famous book, "Why Priests Should We," introduced a strong and stirring resolution about the Cuban situation. He made a brilliant speech, as he always does, and the convention expressed much sympathy with his sentiments.

There were addresses made by representatives of the different nationalities. By far the most charming was that made by a Mrs. Coleman, a colored teacher. She had a firm but pleasant way of calling "a spade a spade." She plead for her race and in so doing made some plain but unique statements. With inimitable quaintness she declared that while it was true that the negro was a thief that he was only a frequent thief, and that he stole enough to get into trouble but unlike the white man, not enough to get out. The speaker also made a strong protest against lynching which was received with applause.

The meeting of the historical society was perhaps the best one held for some time. The president of this society is Dr. Lemuel Moss, at one time the president of the State University of Indiana. The American Baptist Publication society held its seventy third annual meeting. The reports read showed that the Baptists have the largest and most complete publishing house of any denomination in the world. This society has several lines of work but the latest and most up to date is that of their chapel car work. These chapel cars are churches on wheels, supplied with organ, pulpit seating from one to one hundred and fifty. They also contain living apartments for the missionary and wife. The railroad companies give them transportation free of charge and side track them any where they want to do their work. Mr. Boston W. Smith, known by the boys and girls as "Uncle Boston", has charge of this department. He delighted the convention by describing the work with the aid of a stereopticon. "Uncle Boston" made a hit in the description of the way his little girl does missionary work. "She goes to every new family that moves into the neighborhood and asks that they send their children to her Sunday school. One day she visited a new family and made her usual speech and was surprised to hear the lady say that they had no children. "Well," said she, "If you ever have any will you send them to our Sunday school?"

In the reports of the Sunday schools the Calvary Baptist school of Washington made the best showing. They have kindergarten, primary, intermediate, junior, adult and home department with an enrollment of 1,825. S. F. Pittsburg, June 2, 1897.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. ### John B. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John B. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

NEW ENTRANCE TO NEW YORK.

Passengers via Pennsylvania Lines Now Have Choice of Three.

All are convenient locations: Cortland street and DeBrosses street, in the downtown district, and Twenty-third street in the uptown district. The latter entrance will be formally opened May 16th, when two new and commodious ferryboats, double deckers, constructed especially for the Pennsylvania lines and furnished and finished in up-to-date style, will be placed in service between the Jersey City station and the Twenty-third street, connecting with all inbound and outbound trains over the Pennsylvania system, the same as the boats running between that station and Cortland street and DeBrosses street, which will also be continued in daily service.

The Pennsylvania Lines' three entrances into New York enable passengers to quickly reach the business portion of the lower end of the city, as well as the hotels and the business blocks in the very heart of the great metropolis. The ride across the river is a delightful and refreshing termination to an enjoyable trip. All through trains from the west, over the Pennsylvania Lines, land passengers in New York between 8:30 a. m. and 9:40 p. m. treating them to a grand view of the city's water front, its extensive docks where at almost any time may be seen ships of many nations. The wonderful panorama gives visitors a slight idea of the magnitude of New York. The new Twenty-third street ferry line is particularly noteworthy in this respect.

SUMMER OUTINGS.

Seashore, Mountain and Lake Resorts.

The principal pieces of summer sojourn along the Atlantic Ocean, in the Alleghenies, the Adirondacks, Catskills, and mountains of the East, and the lake region and northern Michigan and the Northwest, may be readily reached over the Pennsylvania Lines.

The matter is profusely illustrated with photographic reproductions of seashore scenes and includes views at Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Branch and other resorts along the Atlantic Coast; also of Cresson, Bedford Springs and romantic mountain retreats, and of Potoskey, Mackinac and the summer havens in Michigan and the Northwest.

Persons contemplating summer outing trips will find it a valuable guide in shaping preliminaries. Copies may be obtained by addressing Geo. E. Erickson, District Passenger Agent, Indianapolis, Ind.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. T. M. Gaumer, Who Was Assaulted by Mitchell, Eulogizes the Lynchers. URBANA, O., June 7.—Mrs. T. M. Gaumer, who was assaulted by Mitchell, the negro lynched by the mob last Friday, has issued a card of thanks to her friends for their sympathy during her affliction. After speaking of the messages of sympathy she has received from many parts of the country, she concludes as follows: My heart and the sad hearts of my household are in mourning today for the afflicted homes of Urbana. Broken hearts call to hearts equally sad and distressed with prayer for strength and great sobs of sympathy. May all Christian hearts throughout the length and breadth of this free land of ours go out in sympathy to the sorrowing homes in our midst, made desolate by misguided minds. Never did soldiers on any battlefield die for a more holy and righteous cause than these brave boys for the purity of their homes, for mothers, daughters and sisters. They should be looked upon as heroes, as soldiers willing to spill their blood for the holiest of all and any cause.

MRS. T. M. GAUMER.

Upton Baker and Harry Bell were standing side by side when killed.

FIREMAN'S OBSTINACY.

It Causes the Loss of His Life and That of Two Comrades.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—A fire in the southeastern part of the city yesterday killed three firemen their lives and entailed a property loss of $100,000. Killed: John Mahoney, Frank Feller, James Hallinan.

The fire started mysteriously in the 4-story brick block owned by Schroth & Westerfield and leased to the Standard Biscuit company.

A falling timber struck Fireman Mahoney on the leg, breaking it. He refused to allow his comrades to carry him away in their arms, insisting that he must be borne off on a shutter. The firemen procured a shutter and, just as they lifted their injured comrade, the wall fell, burying beneath a mass of brick and mortar Mahoney and his faithful friends. By dint of much dangerous labor the three bodies were recovered.

OUTWITTING AN EDITOR.

An Exciting Political Scheme In Which McCullagh Figured.

When David R. Francis was a candidate for governor of Missouri, his friends succeeded in getting The Globe-Democrat to further his chances of election. Editor McCullagh had turned on "Our Dave," as Mr. Francis is known in St. Louis, with his short paragraphs with telling effect, and Francis' friends got together and concocted a scheme to offset the editorial work of the paper. They wrote out a display advertisement, and at a late hour of the Saturday morning immediately preceding the election of 1888 took it to the counting room of The Globe-Democrat. The clerk on duty gave the copy a casual looking over and without a word accepted it. It occupied a full page, and at length and in glowing terms set forth the "great business capacity and eminent qualifications of Mr. Francis to occupy the gubernatorial chair of Missouri."

That advertisement caused the biggest row ever witnessed in a newspaper office in St. Louis. When Editor McCullagh found what had been done, he raged and stormed for a week. The fast mail had distributed the paper all over Missouri before McCullagh had his attention called to it. He left his quarters at the Southern hotel on a trot. Reaching the corner of Fourth and Pine streets, he found the streets and the office of The Globe-Democrat jammed with people, who were clamoring to stop their subscriptions. McCullagh had filled a column on the editorial page with "squibs" strongly opposing Francis and advocating the Republican nominee, but the big display of Francis' friends was the first thing seen on opening the paper.

The Christian Era.

The "Christian era" was suggested or devised by Dionysius Exiguus, a Roman monk, who, in 527, began its use and proposed that all public and private documents should be dated "in the year of our Lord." It did not come into general use in France until the eighth century, nor in England until July, 816, in Spain it was not adopted until the eleventh century; in Portugal was made legal in 1415; in the empire of the east it was established by royal edict in 1453, a few weeks before the fall of Constantinople.

ation Services at Brownstown.

Yesterday afternoon over a hundred Knights of Pythias accompanied by the Nightingale band went by special train to Brownstown to attend the decoration services as observed by the lodge at that place. Success Division U. R. K.
of P., under the command of Capt.
Graessle were out and presented a fine appearance. They attracted much attention at Brownstown. The people of Brownstown, especially the Knights, appreciated the presence of the boys from here and the part they took in the exercises. Returning they reached home at 5:30 o'clock.

Something to Depend on.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with a grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop in hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home and to the surprise of all she began to better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well.
Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Trial bottles the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and it's actly what they need. Price fifty cents

PITTSBURG LETTER.

Some Observations Made by a Hoosier at the Baptist Anniversaries.

In days of old wise men came from the East, and there are many good people who believe that today wisdom's children find their home near the rising sun. There is a common notion,
not only prevalent east of the Ohio river but frequently found in the west,
that the culture and refinement of this nation is centered in and radiates from Boston and vicinity.

It is not the purpose here to contend with the forces concerned but to call attention to the fact that never before in the history of the world, has locality had as little to do with the possession of intelligence and never was it so impossible to bound culture and refinement
by longitude and latitude as now.

An interesting illustration of this fact was afforded your correspondent
here in Pittsburgh within the last week or two. It was the occasion of the gathering of the Baptist hosts from all over the land. They came from the north, east, south and west and sat down to gather in the auditorium of the Fourth Ave. Baptist church. No one could distinguish the men from the different sections of the country except when they spoke and betrayed the accent peculiar to the locality in which each lived.

The writer was taken for a New Yorker
several times, when as a matter of fact he had never seen New York or sniffed
the brine of the Atlantic.
By the way Pittsburgh has been more than usually religious of late by reason of the many religious conventions meeting here, the largest of which was the Baptists. Some interesting things occurred in these meetings.

It was the annual meeting of the several societies of the denomination, such as the Home Mission, Foreign Mission, Woman's Society Historical and Publication societies. From one to two days were devoted to each of these societies.
The first day was given to the Woman's meeting. Prominent among the workers of this society stands Miss Burdette, a sister to the noted humorist and lecturer, "Bob" Burdette. She is Cor. Sec'y. of the Woman's Home Mission Society and has her office in Chicago. She is a very bright woman and by her witty and interesting speeches added much to the charm of that meeting.

The Home Mission Society occupied a good deal of time but they had a long program and many things to do. Mr.
Stephen Green, a layman, is the president of the society. During one of the sessions of this body Dr. J. D. Fulton, author of the famous book, "Why Priests Should Wed," introduced a strong and stirring resolution about the Cuban situation. He made a brilliant speech, as he always does, and the convention expressed much sympathy with his sentiments.

There were addresses made by representatives of the different nationalities.
By far the most charming was that made by a Mrs. Coleman, a colored teacher. She had a firm but pleasant way of calling "a spade a spade." She pleaded for her race and in so doing made some plain but unique statements. With inimitable quaintness she declared that while it was true that the negro was a thief that he was only a frequent thief, and that he stole enough to get into trouble but unlike the white man, not enough to get out. The speaker also made a strong protest against lynching
which was received with applause.

The meeting of the historical society was perhaps the best one held for some time. The president of this society is Dr. Lemuel Moss, at one time the president of the State University of Indiana.
The American Baptist Publication
society held its seventy third annual meeting. The reports read showed that the Baptists have the largest and most complete publishing house of any denomination in the world. This society has several lines of work but the latest and most up to date is that of their chapel car work. These chapel cars are churches on wheels, supplied with organ, pulpit seating from one to one hundred and fifty. They also contain living apartments for the missionary and wife. The railroad companies and side track them any where they want to do their work. Mr. Boston W.

Smith, known by the boys and girls as 'Uncle Boston', has charge of this department. He delighted the convention by describing the work with the aid of a stereopticon. "Uncle Boston" made a hit in the description of the way his little girl does missionary work. "She goes to every new family that moves into the neighborhood and asks that they send their children to her Sunday school. One day she visited a new family and made her usual speech and was surprised to hear the lady say that they had no children.
"Well," said she, "If you ever have any will you send them to our Sunday school?"

In the reports of the Sunday schools
the Calvary Baptist school of Washing-made the best showing. They have kindergarten, primary, intermediate,
junior, adult and home department with an enrollment of 1,825. S. F.
Pittsburg, June 2, 1897.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.
For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co.
Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars

John B. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John B. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered. My physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering."

In June, 1894, Mr. Horner, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. ### Cannot Consolidate.

Receiver Cowen and Murray, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, say that a consolidation of the B. & O. and the B. & O. Southwestern is an impossibility under present conditions. The former road is in the hands of the United States court, while the B. & O. Southwestern has a separate organization and is not in the hands of receivers. Consolidation could only be effected by both lines being on the same basis and by the consent of all bondholders. The consolidation step has not been considered by the B. & O. people.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. T. M. Gaumer, who was Assailed by Mitchell, Endorses the Lynchers.
URBANA, O., June 7.—Mrs. T. M. Gaumer, who was assailed by Mitchell, the negro lynched by the mob last Friday, has issued a card of thanks to her friends for their sympathy during her affliction. After speaking of the messages of sympathy she has received from many parts of the country, she concludes as follows:

My heart and the sad hearts of my household are in mourning today for the afflicted homes of Urbana. Broken hearts call to hearts equally sad and distressed with prayer for strength and great sobs of sympathy. May all Christian hearts throughout the length and breadth of this free land of ours go out in sympathy to the sorrowing homes in our midst, made desolate by misguided minds. Never did soldiers on any battlefield die for a more holy and righteous cause than these brave boys for the purity of their homes, for mothers, daughters and sisters. They should be looked upon as heroes, as soldiers willing to spill their blood for the holiest of all and any cause.

Mrs. T. M. GAUMER.

Upton Baker's Funeral.
URBANA, O., June 7.—The funeral procession of Upton Baker passed through here yesterday on its way to Point Pleasant. It was an immense procession. People on the streets here took off their hats and stood with bared heads as it passed. All expenses are borne by citizens of Urbana. Upton Baker and Harry Bell were standing side by side when killed.

FIREMAN'S OBSTINACY.
It Causes the Loss of His Life and That of Two Comrades.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—A fire in the southeastern part of the city yesterday killed three firemen their lives and caused a property loss of $100,000. Killed: John Mahoney, Frank Feller, James Hallman.

The fire started mysteriously in the 4-story brick block owned by Schroth & Westfield and leased to the Standard Biscuit company.

A falling timber struck Fireman Mahoney on the leg, breaking it. He refused to allow his comrades to carry him away in their arms, insisting that he must be borne off on a stretcher.

The firemen procured a shifter and, just as they lifted their injured comrade, the wall fell, burying beneath a mass of brick and mortar Mahoney and his faithful friends. By dint of much dangerous labor the three bodies were recovered.

OUTWITTING AN EDITOR.
An Exciting Political Scheme in Which Success Was Figured.

When David R. Francis was a candidate for governor of Missouri, his friends succeeded in getting The Globe-Democrat to further his chances of election. Editor McCullagh had turned on "Our Dave," as Mr. Francis is known in St. Louis, with his short paragraphs with telling effect, and Francis' friends got together and concocted a scheme to offset the editorial work of the paper.

They wrote out a display advertisement, and at a late hour of the Saturday morning immediately preceding the election of 1888 took it to the counting room of The Globe-Democrat. The clerk on duty gave the copy a casual looking over and without a word accepted it.

It occupied a full page, and at length and in glowing terms set forth the "great business capacity and eminent qualifications of Mr. Francis to occupy the gubernatorial chair of Missouri."

That advertisement caused the biggest row ever witnessed in a newspaper office in St. Louis. When Editor McCullagh found what had been done, he raged and stormed for a week. The last mail had distracted the paper all over Missouri before McCullagh had his attention called to it. He left his quarters at the Southern hotel on a trot. Reaching the corner of Fourth and Pine streets, he found the streets and the office of The Globe-Democrat jammed with people, who were clamoring to stop their subscriptions. McCullagh had filled a column on the editorial page with "squibs" strongly opposing Francis and advocating the Republican nominee, but the big display of Francis' friends was the first thing seen on opening the paper.

Mr. McCullagh at once issued an extra, in which he deprecated the oversight by which the advertisement had found its way into the paper, but it was some time before The Globe-Democrat office recovered its equilibrium.—St. Louis Letter in Chicago Record.

The Christian Era.
The "Christian era" was suggested or devised by Dionysius Exiguus, a Roman monk, who, in 527, began its use and proposed that all public and private documents should be dated "in the year of our Lord." It did not come into general use in France until the eighth century, nor in England until July, 816, in Spain it was not adopted until the eleventh century; in Portugal was made legal in 1415; in the empire of the east it was established by royal edict in 1453, a few weeks before the fall of Constantinople.
